Sergt. R. H. Stolz of the army recruiting service will have a supply of booklets containing advice and information to discharged soldiers and sailors at the postoffice in Barre Saturday, July 19. These booklets are issued free to discharged soldiers and sailors and may be procured between the hours of 10 a. m. and 5 p. m. on the above date. It is the intention of the war department that the recruiting office throughout the country be not only for the purpose of enlisting men for the army but also a bureau of information for the discharged soldiers.

Information regarding back pay, extra mileage, bonus or war risk insurance will be gladly answered by any member of the various recruiting stations. The above booklets are printed for this purpose and give the correct method of applying for any allowances due, instructions for the disposal of the government insurance. Information or the booklets may be procured by applying by letter to the recruiting office in Burlington if there is no recruiting officer near the ex-soldier's home.

Over a hundred youngsters from the Granville Presbyterian Sunday school enjoyed a very successful picnic at Benjamin falls yesterday. Nearly all of them went in three truckloads.

The three happy loads passed through the city twice, singing and giving their class yells. Games and contests were interesting features of the outing. The results of some of them are as follows: Race for boys eight years old and under, Russell Murray 1st, George Murray 2d, Hector Matheson 3d; race for boys eight to 10, Homer Murray 1st, Harold McLeod 2d and Roy Belleville 3d; girls' race, nine years and under, Margaret Campbell 1st, Eva Belleville 2d and Christy Murray 3d; girls' nine to 14, Ethel Murray 1st, Margaret Matheson 2d and Mamie McRae 3d. The "old ladies' race" was won by Mrs. John J. Miller, Mrs. Nevin second and Mrs. Mitchell third. The "spoon race" was won by Charles Nevin, Lord McKinnon second, and Donald Morrison third. Miss Irene Miller won the young ladies' race, Esther Beattie being second and Victoria Matheson third. Ice cream was served and a very good time was the general report from the picnicers.

In a few days the broken propeller blade that was picked up from the field at the trotting park on July 4 after the Hamm-Whitmore heavier-than-air machine came down with a crash, will be divided into smaller parts. These, as advertised in the window of W. G. Reynolds, will be sold as souvenirs, the money from which will be used to defray expenses incurred in the home-coming celebration. Several local and some out-of-town people have left their orders for one of the small wooden samples that may be used as paper weights. As much of the blade as possible will be cut up for sale, though the Barre Historical society has already procured the hub of the large propeller as a souvenir of the first direct airplane flight from Boston to Barre. In years to come these souvenirs, which will be large enough to bear a sizeable inscription, will be valuable relics. How many would like to have a part of the rudder that directed the course of the first boat on Lake Champlain? Equally important will airplane souvenirs be in comparatively short time, as airplane flights are becoming common occurrences and doubtless will be the quite usual method of traveling in a few years. Pilot M. W. Hodgdon, who at almost a moment's notice started for a city 200 miles inland, mentioned that should Barre establish a flying field, it would doubtless soon receive mail by the Montreal-Boston air line service.

"HIGH TENSION" FOR MANY HOURS

As Tenney Company People Engaged in Their Annual Outing.

About 200 men and women enjoyed the third field day of the Montpelier & Barre Light & Power company and the Barre & Montpelier Traction & Power company at Intercity and Dewey parks yesterday afternoon from 2 o'clock to 10 o'clock. A ball game, races, ball throwing contests and shotput contests were features at Intercity park. At 7 o'clock there was a banquet, speeches and dancing at Dewey park.

The first event at Intercity was the ball game between the traction company and the lighting company. E. A. Harris was captain of the traction team and R. M. Eagan of the lighting team. The lighting team inflicted defeat, 14 to 9, on the traction team.

Both teams started in with a strong offensive, each getting five runs in the first two innings. The traction team's infield work was marked with many errors, as was the lighting team's outfield. Scores seemed to pile up against the traction boys throughout the rest of the game and it was almost impossible for them to squeeze in a score until near the last of the game. May caught the first part of the game for the lighting team but was hurt in the fourth inning and was compelled to leave the game. Eagan pitched a good game with fair support in the first part of the game. Cadette pitched a fine game but was poorly supported. Guernsey, the veteran catcher, showed some of his old form behind the bat, although a few wild throws were credited him.

The lineup for the traction team was as follows: Guernsey c, Cadette p, Harris 1b, Hall 2b, Somerville ss, Smith 3b, Kynock cf, Badoff lf and Arey rf, with several changes, working in Brigham in the field and Gleason on third.

The lineup for the lighting team was as follows: May c, Eagan p, Belrose 1b, Sunderland 2b, Marion 3b, Veal ss, Mack, Parizo and Clogston made up the outfield. Substitutes were put in in several places, Columbo and Cole going in in the middle of the game. The game ended with only eight innings played, to leave time for the other sports. Summary of the runs in the game:

Inning.....1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8
Traction team.....5 0 0 2 0 0 2—9
Hits.....6 2 3 4 2 0 3—18
Lighting team.....3 2 5 0 2 0 2—14
Hits.....5 4 6 0 3 2 3—23

The ball game was followed by the shotputting contest with 23 entries. Harry Columbo won the contest by putting the shot 32 feet and 1 inch. The next best was Fred Gleason, 30 feet, 11 inches, and third, E. A. Harris, 30 feet, 10 inches. Several others were over 30 feet. In the ladies' 50-yard dash there were 11 entries. Miss Anderson won this race, with Miss Maronin coming in second and Miss Norris third. The boys' 100-yard dash was won by Myron Hill, who was allowed a 50-yard handicap; Harris was second and Fred Gleason third. The ladies' ball-throwing contest was well entered with 15, part of which did some good throwing. The longest throw was made by Miss DeForge, who threw 115 feet. Mrs. Norris threw 78 feet and Mrs. Harris 67 feet. Some three 30 and 40 feet. The obstacle race was an amusing feature of the sports, Sunderland winning the race with Cadette a close second. The ladies' hoop race was the next event. Miss Niles winning, Miss McLeod second and Miss Anderson third.

The tug-of-war event was won by the line department, it pulling the plant department several feet over the middle line. Those pulling were Hill, captain; Wilder, Lull, E. Parizo and P. Parizo, Pike and Holmes for the line department. Those pulling for the plant department were Eastman, captain; White, Bruce, Wore, DeForge, May, Barney.

The next event was announced about 6:30 by Mr. Harris and that was the clambake at Dewey park. The evening events were largely attended. The orchestra played during the banquet. One of the first speeches after the supper was given by Manager H. D. Lavigne, who presented prizes. The prizes were presented with fitting remarks by one who could well review the humorous parts of the afternoon's events. Vice-President H. T. Sands gave a very interesting address and in that spoke with regret of Mr. Larrabee leaving the company. Mr. Larrabee leaves to take the position of superintendent of the Norwich, Conn., air line. He was presented a combination traveling and lunch bag. Mr. Sands said although the company was sorry to lose a good man they were glad they had had with them a man who was able to take a much higher position. F. E. Gleason gave a very interesting lecture on the subject, "Care and Feeding of Poultry."

After the banquet Gilbertson's orchestra furnished music for dancing until 11 o'clock, which was the hour for closing a long to be remembered day for the employees of the Montpelier & Barre Light & Power company and the Barre & Montpelier Traction & Power company.
